3 Jul 2002 — ACQ201 NOTICE

ATTENTION! There are no Navy vacancies remaining for ACQ201B in FY02. We are in the process of returning excess applications while holding on to a small number as possible substitutes for late cancellations. If you previously submitted an application and have not yet been scheduled, please plan to submit another application when the FY03 schedule becomes available (soon!).

3 Jul 2002 — Travel Funding Update

We have rescinded all funding restrictions imposed earlier this fiscal year and have reinstated Navy's centralized travel funding policy (i.e., Acquisition Workforce Members assigned to quotas by the Navy Registrar for certification, assignment specific, and continuous learning courses are now eligible). As long as there remains available funds, we will provide travel funding support for all eligible students. Regretably, we cannot reimburse commands for locally-issued travel orders. If you have a confirmed reservation and are in doubt as to the proper funding source for your travel orders, please contact Lisa Rhone at LRHONE@HROPENSACOLA.NAVY.MIL

7 Jun 2002 — NEW COURSE: CON100

NOW ACCEPTING CON100 APPLICATIONS! Get a head start now: CON100 will be a new Level I Contracting Career Field certification requirement as of 1 October 2002, and will be designated as a prerequisite requirement to CON101. DAU is now accepting applications for CON100 classes that will be conducted between now and September 30. These are funded quotas and travel orders will be issued from Register-Now if you are eligible. Submit your application TODAY and ensure your supervisor approves it electronically as soon as possible.

DAU plans to release the coming Fiscal Year schedule of classes (and to begin accepting applications) in the June/July timeframe. Watch here for the announcement.
